HORIZON
WORLD CLASS YACHTS

ELEGANCE, STYLE AND SOPHISTICATION

"The RP Series is both modern and elegant, with spacious decks and a raised pilothouse with an open feel that seamlessly connects the interiors with the sea." — JC Espinosa, Designer

Defining the RP Series

DESIGN

Modern exterior styling from JC Espinosa contributes to the sleek RP Series profile, and a variety of interior layout and design options are available.

SPACE

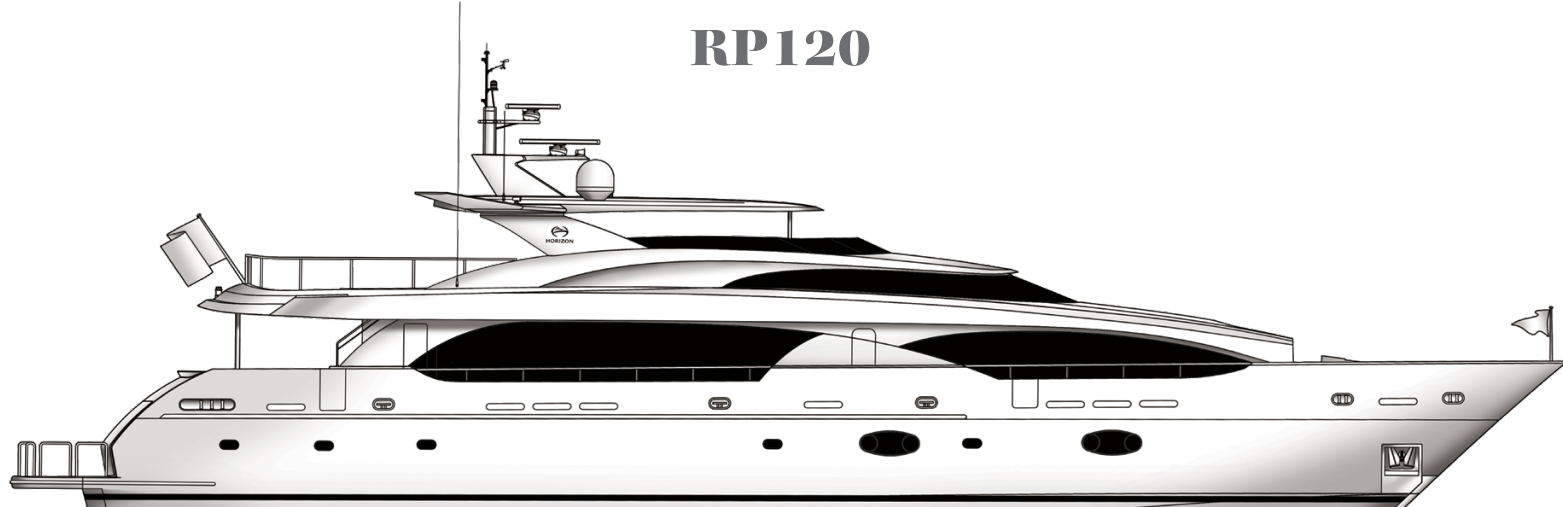

Expansive indoor and outdoor spaces provide generous comfort perfect for sun worshippers, families and cruising enthusiasts.

VERSATILITY

Defined by its raised pilothouse and open flybridge, the RP Series offers multiple areas for entertainment and navigation.

RP110

Sleek, Streamlined and Spacious

ONE OF LIFE'S GREAT DIVERSIONS.

Dressed in a décor that exudes a relaxed yet sophisticated modern beach house vibe, the RP110 offers a spacious, functional and flexible five-stateroom layout within its 25' beam.

The innovative double chine hull design not only provides a shallow draft but also minimizes drag at slower speeds and enhances hydrodynamic stability at high speeds.

THESE PAGES

The RP110 offers a multitude of living configurations, including four guest staterooms with a country kitchen or five guest staterooms with an on-deck Master.

Pilothouse

THESE PAGES

Sleek, graceful exterior styling from J.C. Espinosa lies atop an innovative and high-performance hull developed by Donald L. Blount in collaboration with Horizon's in-house team. Navigation from the raised pilothouse is seamless and comfortable.
